

BECOME A BATTLE JACKS HOST FAMILY

Home of Southwest Michigan Baseball

This summer, you can make a real impact.

Battle Jacks host families provide a home away from home for college baseball players spending their summer in Battle Creek. These players are chasing their dream, and your home becomes part of that journey.

It's not just housing.
It's connection, mentorship, and being part of the team.

What to Expect

- Players that are busy with games, practices, and travel
- Players coming and going at different hours
- Independent players that manage their own schedules

How We'll Support

- Player information in advance
- Clear communication throughout the season
- A dedicated contact for any questions

Many of our families return year after year because of the relationships they build.

WHAT YOU PROVIDE

A bed

(private room preferred)

Access to a bathroom, kitchen, and laundry

A supportive home environment

Basic food support (we'll guide you)

THAT'S IT!

NO DRIVING REQUIRED

NO COMPLICATED COMMITMENTS

"Host families are the foundation of our team. We are committed to building a program that is organized, respectful, and appreciative of your role every step of the way."

- Sam Connell, General Manager
