NOTES TO KNOW

Last time out . . .

The Huskies first homestand of the season began with a two-game set with the La Crosse Loggers. In game one, the Huskies were outhit, 7-5. However, four (4) of those five hits came in one inning: a five-run bottom of the sixth to extend a Huskies lead of 1-0 out to 6-0. Brady Sullivan delivered the big hit, a pinch-hit RBI double that got the party started in the second. On the other side, the Huskies pitching staff combined for their best start to the season, tossing up six consecutive zeros, the most so far. They would allow four runs in the late innings, but did score two of their own in order to grab an 8-4 victory, their second home win of the season.

Some severe weather hindered the second game of the series, as that game has been postponed. It will be made up on June 25 as part of a doubleheader.

Offense leads the way

After the 2023 season where the Huskies averaged 7.72 runs per game, the Huskies offense is once again off to a blistering start. Through 15 games, the Huskies have scored 98 runs for an average of 6.42 runs per game, the 9th best mark in the Northwoods League.

Tale of the Tape

Duluth		vs	Wausau
9th	6.42	Offense	6.38	10th
10th	.260	AVG	.272	7th
9th	.759	OPS	.781	6th
T-10th	9	HR	14	T-4th
16th	25	SB	42	6th
15th	0.61	BB/K	0.61	14th
20th	5.65	ERA	3.95	3rd
22nd	.273	Opp BA	.225	1st
Last	6.84	K/9	10.00	4th
T-9th	87	BB	69	T-13th
1st	33	Errors	18	T-19th

In their nine (9) victories, the Huskies offense has scored 83 of their 98 runs, for an average of 9.22 runs per game. On the flip side, this means in their six (6) losses, that number plummets to just 2.5 runs per game.

Superior staff

In Duluth's last two games, the pitching staff has really started to heat up. The four (4) runs allowed in each of the past two games are tied for the least amount of runs allowed by the Huskies in a game so far this season.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

It was an offense that was struggling to get something going against La Crosse. That is, until Brady Sullivan came up. His pinch-hit double was the catalyst for a five-run 6th inning that powered the Huskies to an 8-4 victory.

MJ Sweeney has been the Huskies best hitter for most of the season, and the 6'7 slugger is showing his value. He is currently riding a streak of five (5) straight games with an RBI, with six (6) overall during the streak. He's up to 12 overall on the season, T-18th in the NWL.

BY THE NUMBERS

9.22
Average runs per game scored by the Huskies in victories this season.

4
Huskies hits in their five-run 6th inning vs La Crosse. They had five (5) overall for the entire game.

8
Runs allowed by the Huskies in their last two (2) games. The Huskies have had six (6) single games where they have allowed at least eight (8) runs.

#EmbraceTheHowl | #RollSkies

In the, 6-4, victory over Thunder Bay on June 10, Cale Haugen went seven (7) strong innings, allowing just two (2) runs. Myles Standish allowed two runs in the eight, but the combo of Caden Kratz and Charlie Dohemann combined to shut down the Border Cats the rest of the way.

In the opening victory of the homestand against La Crosse, Gilbert Saunders and Ian Moore combined to throw up six straight shutout frames, the most from the Huskies to start a game so far this season. By the time the Huskies allowed the four runs late in the game, the result was not in question as they rolled on to an 8-4 victory.

Acing the test

The series against Wausau marks the third consecutive series for the Huskies at home, and fourth overall, where the team enters it with a top-5 ERA in the league. Thunder Bay entered the series at Wade, as well as the return to Thunder Bay, with the second-best ERA in the league, La Crosse entered the series with the Huskies with the fifth-best, and Wausau enters with the third best. However, the Huskies offense has come to play regardless, scoring 32 runs in the last five (5) games, an average of 6.4 runs per game.

What's up with the Woodchucks

Wausau enters Wade Stadium atop the entire Northwoods League, with a 13-3 record. Wausau began the season unbeaten through nine (9) games to start the season. That 9-0 start to the season was the best to begin a season in Woodchucks history.

The Woodchucks' pitching staff has been elite to start the season as they enter the series with an oBA of just .225, the best mark in the league. Additionally, the staff ERA is 3.95, third in the Northwoods League. They're also striking out 10.00 batters per nine innings.

Offensively, Wausau has scored 6.38 runs per game, 10th in the league. Drew Berkland has been the best run producer for Wausau, with his 16 RBI ranking third in the league. He has an .869 OPS and three (3) home runs to begin his summer.

Welcome Home, Huskies

Through the first 15 games of the season, the Huskies have played just five (5) of them in the friendly confines of Wade Stadium.

Last season, Duluth went 20-16 at home; however, this season, they are just 2-3.

Wade Stadium has been the Huskies home ballpark since the Huskies formed back in 2003, meaning the stadium is in their 22nd season of hosting the Huskies this year.

Come on Down to the Wade!

In the home opening weekend of the season, the Huskies drew a combined 2,199 fans. That number is the most in Duluth's opening weekend since 2018.

Promotions for the upcoming series vs Wausau include:

June 13: First Responders Appreciation Night, $5 Domestic Tap Beers.

June 14: 90's Night btyb Volkswagon, Friday on the Rocks (discounted wines, champagnes, BullzBallz).

Hey, You Look Familiar

In the Northwoods League, it is pretty traditional to see an entire roster turn over from year-to-year, but the Huskies have a couple of faces that fans might recognize from last season. Pitcher Devin Dodson and third baseman Ethan Cole are both returning to the Huskies this season from last year.

Cole dazzled in his 8-game sample size with his hometown team, with a 1.366 OPS and 6 RBI and is off to a great start again this year, belting his first home run last time out and leading the team with six)6_ doubles.Dodson, now in his third season with Duluth, tossed 39.2 innings last summer with a 6.13 ERA as a starter, posting a 4-2 record.

Along with Cole, there are two other Duluth, Minn. natives on the roster. Joe Vos (St. Thomas) and Charlie Sutherland (Minnesota) are both also from Duluth. The trio all attended Duluth East HS and all played together in 2021 on the Greyhounds.

The Northwoods League

The Northwoods League was established in 1994 as the first for-profit summer collegiate baseball league. In order to participate in the league, players must have NCAA eligibility remaining, with the exception of up to four graduated senior pitchers per team. The major difference between the Northwoods League and the NCAA season is the use of wooden bats by the players as opposed to the aluminum bats they are allowed to use during the NCAA season in efforts to prepare them for the pros.

In 2018, the league moved to the separation of the league into two divisions, the Great Lakes and Great Plains, further separated into two subdivisions, East and West for both. The season is separated by two halves, with the subdivision winners of each half qualifying for the playoffs. In the event that the same team wins each half, the second playoff berth will go to the team in the subdivision with the next highest overall winning percentage.

The league, now in its 31st season of play, is set to play in its most expansive season yet, with 26 teams in the league this season following the addition of two expansion teams, the Badlands Big Sticks and Royal Oak Leprechauns, as well as the return of the traveling only Minnesota Mud Puppies.

The Green Bay Rockers won the League Championship last year, the first in team history. The Rochester Honkers own the most league titles (5).

WADE STADIUM

Duluth, Minn.

Frank Wade Municipal Stadium was built in 1941 as the Duluth All Sports Stadium to be home to the minor league baseball team, Duluth Dukes, of the Northern League. The stadium, located near the intersection of Grand Avenue and 34th Avenue West in the West Duluth neighborhood, is built with 381,000 bricks that once paved Grand Avenue, the same bricks still stand today. The stadium saw a renovation in 2015, seeing a switch to a turf field as well as a new drainage system, lighting and scoreboard.

Eventually, the stadium was renamed to Wade Stadium in honor of the Dukes original owner Frank Wade. After bouncing around affiliations, the Dukes would eventually relocate to Kansas City in 2002. The stadium would not be vacant for long as the Huskies came in 2003 and have called "The Wade" home since. The stadium is also home to The College of St. Scholastica as well as a select amount of high school games throughout the season as well.

LOOKING BACK . . .

- Last season, the Huskies finished 36-32, going 16-16 in the first half of the season (4th in Great Plains East) and posting a 20-16 record in the second half of the season (3rd). A strong second half was unfortunately not enough to reach the postseason for the Huskies, missing the playoffs for the first time in three seasons.
- The Huskies were electrifying at the plate last season, plating 525 runs in 68 games played for an average of 7.72 runs per game and ranking at or near the top of the league in many other offensive categories.
- The Huskies placed seven (7) players in the Northwoods League All-Star game last season, including the league MVP, Michael Halquist. In 57 games, Halquist slashed .355/.456/.659, leading the league with a 1.115 OPS. He drove in 62 runs while also hitting a league-leading 15 HR as the leader of the Huskies offense.
