NOTES TO KNOW

Rox-ing in to July

July kicks off as the first half of the season winds down at Wade Stadium. An in-state rival, the St. Cloud Rox, come to town for the third and fourth matchups of the season. The Huskies took both earlier meetings this season at Joe Faber Field in St. Cloud and will look to continue to that success at home.

Last time out . . .

The Huskies made the return trip to Wausau for two games at Athletic Park, earning a split with the league-leading Woodchucks. The Huskies held down the Woodchucks offense in game one, thanks to a fantastic performance on the mound by Brayden Curtis. The Nebraska-Omaha product delivered eight innings of one run ball, scattering six hits and striking out five. The offense did enough on the other side, powered by a three-run sixth innings.

In game two, the Huskies did not have the same success in limiting the Woodchucks offense. Wausau broke out to the tune of 15 runs, including scoring runs in each of the first six innings. They scored multiple runs in five of the first six frames, romping to a, 15-9 victory. The Huskies did have an eight-run fourth inning to briefly take the lead, but it would not be enough in the defeat.

MJ is Mashing

Huskies first baseman MJ Sweeney has been an absolute menace at the plate this season for the Huskies. In 27 games played so far this season, the 6'7 slugger is slashing .340/.427/.612 with seven (7) home runs and 29 RBIs. Each of those marks rank near the top of the Northwoods League; his seven homers is tied for 3rd in the league while the 29

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

After a torrid start to the season, OF Joe Vos cooled down a little but. However, he enjoyed one of his best games of the season last time out vs Wausau. Vos reached five of six times up, going 3-for-4 with a HR, 3 RBI, and 2 BB.

How about some love for the staff? P Albert Roblez was instrumental in the walk-off win the last time the Huskies were at home. He pitched the final four innings of the game, allowing zero runs. In his 7.2 IP this season, Roblez has yet to allow an earned run.

Home Run Huskies

🐾 After hitting 60 home runs last season, fourth most in the league, the Huskies have started to rediscover that power stroke from last year. Since June 16, the Huskies have blasted 14 home runs to bring their total to 23 on the season.

🐾 Two Huskies in particular have really come alive in that stretch. Reagan Reeder and MJ Sweeney have each hit four home runs over that stretch to combine for eight of the 14 for Duluth.

Strike Hard, Strike Fast, No Mercy

🐾 So far this season, the Huskies have had vast success when striking first and striking hard. This year, the Huskies are an impressive 11-3 when scoring the first run of the game. When outhitting an opponent for the game overall, Duluth is 11-2.

🐾 The perfect example of that was the first series this season between the Rox and the Huskies. Over the course of the two games, the Huskies scored 16 runs in the first two innings, including a nine-run first inning in game two of the series at Joe Faber Field. Duluth eclipsed the double-digit mark in both games on the way to a series sweep.

How the Rox are Rolling in 🐾 St. Cloud comes into the series with the Huskies in a similar spot to Duluth: right there in the division but going to come up just short. The Rox are eliminated from first half contention; however, whereas Duluth played themselves out of the chance, the Rox have played excellent baseball down the stretch to even put themselves in that conversation. St. Cloud has won seven (7) of their past eight games played and a team that was once 10-13 is now 17-14.

🐾 The team is coming off of a sweep of the struggling, road-only Minnesota Mud Puppies, outscoring them a combined 23-8.

🐾 St. Cloud's offense goes as their two best run-producers go: Jackson Hauge (8 HR) and Sawyer Smith (23 RBI). The two lead the Rox in home runs and RBIs respectively, but both hae been prone to struggles as each has a batting average below .250. As a team, St. Cloud is a run-and-gun team. They've swiped 90 bases, the fourth-most in the Northwoods League. Additionally, they've hit 25 home runs, the eighth-most.

🐾 The pitching has been the strength of the Rox this season. The team ERA of 4.05 is the second-best in the NWL. On top of that, they strike out a lot of batters (301, 7th), don't walk a lot of batters (155, 4th) and don't give up home runs (11, 4th).

Come on Down to the Wade!

🐾 In the home opening weekend of the season, the Huskies drew a combined 2,199 fans. That number is the most in Duluth's opening weekend since 2018.

🐾 Promotions for the upcoming series vs St. Cloud include:

July 1: (Heavily) Discounted Hot Dogs if you donate two non-perishable items

July 2: Minnesota ID Night (discounted tickets if you present a MN ID), Taco Tuesday ($5 Taco in a Bag)

Hey, You Look Familiar

🐾 In the Northwoods League, it is pretty traditional to see an entire roster turn over from year-to-year, but the Huskies have a couple of faces that fans might recognize from last season. Pitcher Devin Dodson and third baseman Ethan Cole are both returning to the Huskies this season from last year.

Cole dazzled in his 8-game sample size with his hometown team, with a 1.366 OPS and 6 RBI. Dodson, now in his third season with Duluth, tossed 39.2 innings last summer with a 6.13 ERA as a starter, posting a 4-2 record.

🐾 Along with Cole, there are two other Duluth, Minn. natives on the roster. Joe Vos (St. Thomas) and Charlie Sutherland (Minnesota) are both also from Duluth. The trio all attended Duluth East HS and all played together in 2021 on the Greyhounds.

The Northwoods League

The Northwoods League was established in 1994 as the first for-profit summer collegiate baseball league. In order to participate in the league, players must have NCAA eligibility remaining, with the exception of up to four graduated senior pitchers per team. The major difference between the Northwoods League and the NCAA season is the use of wooden bats by the players as opposed to the aluminum bats they are allowed to use during the NCAA season in efforts to prepare them for the pros.

In 2018, the league moved to the separation of the league into two divisions, the Great Lakes and Great Plains, further separated into two subdivisions, East and West for both. The season is separated by two halves, with the subdivision winners of each half qualifying for the playoffs. In the event that the same team wins each half, the second playoff berth will go to the team in the subdivision with the next highest overall winning percentage.

The league, now in its 31st season of play, is set to play in its most expansive season yet, with 26 teams in the league this season following the addition of two expansion teams, the Badlands Big Sticks and Royal Oak Leprechauns, as well as the return of the traveling only Minnesota Mud Puppies.

The Green Bay Rockers won the League Championship last year, the first in team history. The Rochester Honkers own the most league titles (5).

WADE STADIUM

Duluth, Minn.

Frank Wade Municipal Stadium was built in 1941 as the Duluth All Sports Stadium to be home to the minor league baseball team, Duluth Dukes, of the Northern League. The stadium, located near the intersection of Grand Avenue and 34th Avenue West in the West Duluth neighborhood, is built with 381,000 bricks that once paved Grand Avenue, the same bricks still stand today. The stadium saw a renovation in 2015, seeing a switch to a turf field as well as a new drainage system, lighting and scoreboard.

Eventually, the stadium was renamed to Wade Stadium in honor of the Dukes original owner Frank Wade. After bouncing around affiliations, the Dukes would eventually relocate to Kansas City in 2002. The stadium would not be vacant for long as the Huskies came in 2003 and have called "The Wade" home since. The stadium is also home to The College of St. Scholastica as well as a select amount of high school games throughout the season as well.

LOOKING BACK . . .

- Last season, the Huskies finished 36-32, going 16-16 in the first half of the season (4th in Great Plains East) and posting a 20-16 record in the second half of the season (3rd). A strong second half was unfortunately not enough to reach the postseason for the Huskies, missing the playoffs for the first time in three seasons.
- The Huskies were electrifying at the plate last season, plating 525 runs in 68 games played for an average of 7.72 runs per game and ranking at or near the top of the league in many other offensive categories.
- The Huskies placed seven (7) players in the Northwoods League All-Star game last season, including the league MVP, Michael Halquist. In 57 games, Halquist slashed .355/.456/.659, leading the league with a 1.115 OPS. He drove in 62 runs while also hitting a league-leading 15 HR as the leader of the Huskies offense.

MARCUS POINTER, Head Coach

A native of Pacifica, CA., is entering his sixth year and fifth season with the Duluth Huskies. With a successful collegiate baseball career while attending Skyline Junior College in San Bruno, CA. Pointer had won 21 games in two seasons achieving 1st team All-Conference unanimous Pitcher-of-the-year and 1st team All-American. Afterwards, he became the pitching coach for the Orange County Riptide, leading the team to the 2017 Championships. Currently the Head Coach and Pitching Coach at Skyline, he has has a number of his players all-league pitchers and top prospects from over 100 different colleges across the NCAA, NAIA, and Junior College levels. Including almost 50 of his players selected for the annual Major League Draft and numerous others sign professionally.

As the head coach of the Huskies, he has qualified for the playoffs twice, coming in consecutive seasons in 2021 and 2022. In the 2022 season, he led the Huskies to a 34-33 record and advancing all the way to the league championship game in the playoffs before the team's magical run ended at the hands of Kalamazoo in the one game league championship. In the 2023 season, Pointer coached league MVP Michael Hallquist and the Huskies to a 36-32 record and seven Northwoods League all-stars, but the team failed to qualify for the postseason for the first time in three seasons.
