Please list any special notes concerning your family (pets, cars available for player use, requests for certain players/types of players, distance to stadium, etc.):

As a host family for the Waterloo Bucks, I/we understand there will be no monetary compensation for housing players and agree to the terms of being a host family as listed in the Host Family Guidelines handbook that is provided. I/We also understand if we breach this agreement, I/we will lose our host family privileges with the Waterloo Bucks and the player(s) will be removed and placed in another housing arrangement. I/We also recognize that there is a continued level of risk related to being exposed to COVID-19 during this time. By agreeing to host, you are voluntarily assuming all risks related to exposure to COVID-19 for yourself and all members of your family.
